

Low Cut

+Halle®

Low Cut

Low Cut offers a simple and stringent design that does not compromise the comfortable feel. The sofa fits the classic and relaxing lounge or waiting area perfectly, and speaks different languages depending on the choice of either exclusive leather or quirky textiles. Available as a 2 or 3 seater.

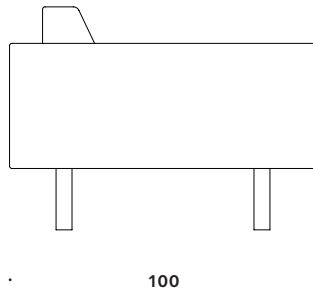

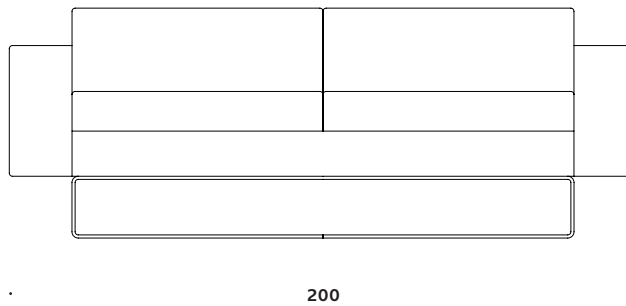

Designed by Anne Louise Due de Fønns

Anne Louise Due de Fønns is an open minded designer, who let innovation and individuality grow. She always stretches materials, texture, form and technology to the limits.

“The variation that comes from adapting products to their intended spaces and users is what drives me, as a designer” she says.

She has a strong belief that simplicity of design and quality of material will be the order of the day. She is convinced that people will spend a larger proportion of their time in fewer spatial locations in the future, and thus surround themselves with fewer - but more significant objects.
